

Robert Savolidis

Despite only joining Busby Cabinets in 2012, Robert has spent the past 24 years in the cabinet and construction (both residential and commercial) industry.

His current role, South Region Field Superintendent, includes managing installation teams, jobsite management, and service and warranty calls.

Robert has served in virtually every phase of the custom cabinet industry, including manufacturing, shop management and jobsite management, as well as sales and design.

He is a native of Florida and has lived in the Naples area for the last 26 years.
